Band Bio

The Rough Edges are a bluegrass band based in and around the Reno, Nevada area.

We share a passion for traditional bluegrass and old-time fiddle tunes. We cover songs by some of the masters, Bill Monroe, Flatt & Scruggs, the Stanley Brothers, etc., and we cover a few slightly more progressive songs. We also toss a couple original songs into the mix. You won't hear a lot of slow songs at our gig. We like to drive that bluegrass bus and stay true to the classic bluegrass sound.

Randy Wilson, fiddle

Steve Gallgher, mandolin

Greg Revers, banjo

Mike Munson, guitar

Phil McGill, electric bass
