

HICK'RY SWITCH

Established in 2003 as a Bluegrass band in Carson City, Hick'ry Switch has since transitioned to an Americana/Indie-grass sound including a nice mix of homegrown tunes. Mark Johnson is a powerful, melodic banjo player from Montana. Cory King plays passionate improvisational mandolin. Kate Johnson provides driving rhythm guitar, and Mike Suglia brings a rock solid bass. All members lend their voices to both lead and harmony singing - resulting in a well rounded, clean and hard driving sound.
